Glasses trends with real staying power.

1. SCOTT HARRIS The '30s-inspired SH-VIN-45 presents a P3 shape with a low-profile keyhole bridge and metal pin details. (800) 621-4108, europaeey.com, $210 | 2. SPECTACULARS The full acetate, unisex Herbert is a circular celebration for today that looks back to the '30s. (800) 645-3733, cvoptical.com, $270 | 3. BRIONI Travel all the way back with the BRO0620, a pantos style that works off of the round frames popularized in the '30s. This frame includes a Card hinge and a laser-engraved Brioni logo. kering.com, $620 | 4. X-IDE Movement is the Cipri's middle name, as its wavy temples evoke a '60s vibe. x-ide.com, price upon request | 5. MONDOTTICA Men slid into the '60s with modified square frames like the acetate SD 1000 001, which features tortoiseshell trim on the temples. (866) 666-3662, mondotticausa.com, starting at $237 | 6. VUARNET With or without the clip-on, the Pantos from the Clip-On Collection delivers a stylish throwback look that's hand-made with acetate or a combination of acetate and stainless steel. (914) 496-3701, usvuarnet.com, $470 | 7. GIGI BARCELONA An oversized square shape meets rounded corners on the '70s-inspired Aretha (6345-1). gigibarcelona.com, $269 | 8. RYE & LYE The '70s come through loud and clear with the Barbera, a combination frame with a distinct look. rye-lye.com, $406 | 9. L.A. EYEWORKS Grab your headscarf and throw on that pantsuit before you grab your Mollusk frame. The '70s-style acetate 725 Pink Me is handmade in Italy. (323) 962-3915, laeyeworks.com, $485
